Advancement, Marketing & Communications Section Seeks Undergraduate Interns for 2012

The Advancement, Marketing & Communications section of the Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Inc. (CLINIC), is seeking a part time intern immediately and a full time intern during the summer to assist in various communications, website development, and marketing projects to elevate the discussion on immigration to the public. The intern(s) will:

- Receive diverse communication assignments including writing blogs, press releases, white papers and web pages
- Be a part of a busy non-profit organization
- Manage CLINIC's Google AdWords program
- Assist in event planning
- Review and enhance the organization's media list to identify the major outlets covering immigration
- A wide variety of other opportunities exist including attending events, policy briefings, etc.

Skills needed include strong writing and research, teamwork, flexibility, and initiative. Interest in immigration, Catholic social teaching and public policy are a plus, as is Spanish.

If interested, please e-mail cover letter, resume, writing sample, and references to:
