Mother Cabrini, Patron of Immigrants, pray for us.

*Mother Cabrini, Patron of Immigrants, who came to help those like me,
who abandoned everything we knew.*

We left country, family, and friends to find a safer place.

You embraced the freedom of America and I embrace it now.

Sometimes I'm afraid, anxious, and overwhelmed.

I may be criticized, ridiculed, and misunderstood because I look, speak, and act differently.

Yet, your love for all, especially the poor and the refugee, is my guiding light.

It gives me hope.

And I offer the prayer now, that you so boldly prayed then,

“Dear God, fortify me with the grace of your Holy Spirit and give your peace to my soul.”

Amen.
