

Becoming a citizen opens
doors toward
a better life for
you and your children.

Citizenship benefits individuals, families and communities. When a permanent resident naturalizes, his or her children under age 18 may automatically become U.S. citizens if they meet certain requirements.