Re: FOIA 2019-11392

Dear Ms. Mendez,

This letter is a partial response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) in which you seek information regarding the Office of Policy and various Attorney General’s decisions.

Documents responsive to parts 1 and 2 of your request are enclosed. There will be no charge for the enclosed documents.

EOIR continues to process your request and will issue a final response when all documents have been received and reviewed.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV 2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. See http://www.justice.gov/oip/foiapost/2012foiapost9.html.

You may contact our FOIA Public Liaison at the telephone number 703-605-1297 for any further assistance and to discuss any aspect of your request. Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, Room 2510, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; toll free at 1-877-684-6448; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.
If you are not satisfied with my response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following website: https://www.foiaonline.gov/foiaonline/action/public/home. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of my response to your request. SUBJECT: The Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) seeks to add a new Office of Policy

The Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) is requesting that a reorganization, establishing a new Office of Policy, be included in the Department of Justice FY 2017 Spending Plan. The proposed reorganization reflects EOIR's need to identify, develop and effectively communicate EOIR's organizational priorities and policies to internal and external stakeholders.

The Office of Policy will include the previous Office of Planning, Analysis and Statistics, currently located in the Office of the Director. It will coordinate strategic policy initiatives on behalf of EOIR leadership that advance EOIR’s priorities, including projects that require coordination with DOJ headquarters, and both intra-agency and inter-agency partners.

This office will:
- Identify, develop, draft, standardize, and communicate agency priorities and policies
- Oversee and standardize the EOIR regulatory process
- Oversee the strategic management process
- Conduct research, evaluation, and statistical analysis
- Expand analytics capacity to meet the demand for advanced and predictive analytics
- Enhance data quality and governance to quickly and effectively mitigate any data quality issues in the field
OP will be led by a GS-15, with the intention that EOIR will request an SES slot for this position in the future.

This new office will enable EOIR to make better data-informed decisions and quickly adapt to the changing environment. Information regarding this proposed reorganization has also been provided to the Budget Staff, Justice Management Division with the EOIR FY 2017 spending plan submission.

The work of the Executive Office for Immigration Review has grown significantly over recent years as the agency serves to administer the nation’s immigration court system and the increasing immigration court backlog. As well as the primary responsibility of operating 58 immigration courts (expected to increase to over 60) throughout the country determining the status of foreign born individuals, EOIR also adjudicates cases involving the illegal hiring and employment eligibility verification violations, document fraud, and employment discrimination. In addition, as the topic of immigration and public safety become the focal point of the current Administration, EOIR gains more public interest and is in need of a dedicated office to effectively communicate the agency’s organizational priorities and policies to internal and external stakeholders. This new office, headed by an SES executive, will be key in EOIR's efforts to meet the Presidential and Attorney General priority goal to Enforce Immigration Laws.
I am pleased to announce that Chief of Staff ACIJ Christopher A. Santoro will serve as the Acting Assistant Director for EOIR’s newly-formed Office of Policy, which is slated to begin operations on December 11. Chris will oversee setting up the office and ensuring a seamless transition as it centralizes coordination among different components on a number of issues. The Office of Policy will, among other things:

- identify, develop, draft and standardize agency priorities and policies
- oversee and standardize the agency’s regulatory process in consultation with OGC
- oversee the strategic management process
- conduct research, evaluation, and statistical analysis
- expand analytics capacity to provide advanced and predictive analytics for strategic planning purposes
- enhance data quality and governance
- oversee and coordinate the agency’s internal development and dissemination of policy guidance and legal updates and coordinate legal training
- provide for overall planning, management, and direction of communications.

I encourage you to contact Chris with any suggestions you may have regarding ways in which the Office of Policy can serve EOIR’s needs.

James McHenry
Acting Director
Good Afternoon,

EOIR invites qualified attorneys to apply for an opportunity to join our new Office of Policy (OP), which will formally launch on December 11, 2017. In addition to containing the Office of Communications and Legislative Affairs (OCLA) and the Office of Planning Analysis and Statistics (OPAS), OP will house a newly-formed Immigration Law Division. The Immigration Law Division will oversee and standardize the agency’s regulatory process in consultation with OGC; oversee and coordinate the agency’s internal development and dissemination of policy guidance and legal updates; and coordinate all legal training.

We are looking to fill two types of positions within the Immigration Law Division: Division Chief (one position) and Attorney (up to four positions). Before soliciting externally, we are seeking volunteers to potentially fill these positions through reassignment.

Qualifications.

(1) Division Chief. To qualify for this position, the applicant must be an EOIR attorney with at least 7 years of experience in the field of immigration law. In particular, the applicant should have experience related to the regulatory process, policy development, and/or legal training. Moreover, the applicant must have at least one year of supervisory experience.

(2) Attorney: To qualify for this position, the applicant must be an EOIR attorney with at least 5 years of experience in the field of immigration law. In particular, the applicant should have experience related to the regulatory process, policy development, and/or legal training.

Application process. Attorneys wishing to apply to either position must submit a brief statement of interest (1-2 pages), a current resume, and any supporting documentation that the applicant would like considered. The statement of interest should demonstrate that the applicant meets the qualifications for the position as listed above, and should also address the applicant’s ability to perform quality legal work in a timely manner, while exhibiting professionalism, collegiality, and an ability to work collaboratively with others. Applicants are welcome to submit their most recent performance evaluation, but it is not required.

The application materials must be submitted to: EOIR.HR_Application_Review@usdoj.gov or type in the following address: EOIR.HR_Application_Review@usdoj.gov by the close of business on Friday, December 1st. The applicant must clearly indicate in the subject line or body of the e-mail the position to which he/she is applying (Division Chief or Attorney or both). If you have any questions please contact Matia Ayers 703-305-0710 or via email.

Hi Sir,

An interview late next week is perfect and the team photo is ideal at All Hands on the 19th.
I truly appreciate your support and should I go to Deborah Moutinho to schedule a 30 minute appointment with you Thursday, Dec 14?
And I’m very flexible regarding the component highlights - OP will post/publish 02 Jan.

Best,
Angela

Angela,

Hello — I hope you are well. The OP will be highlighted the week of Jan 2 (that change just literally happened a few minutes ago so don’t worry about not knowing it yet...).

I’m okay with doing an interview whenever you want it but I won’t have a full staff identified until late next week (we are reviewing the people who will round out the training and legal functions). Might I suggest we do the photo the day of the All Hands on the 19th? Would that work?

Sir,

Good afternoon and I hope this message finds you well.

As you know, OCLA Internal Communications has highlighted since October EOIR components with a narrative and a team photo which appear on the EOIR Homepage.
According to the Director’s schedule, the new Office of Policy (OP) is scheduled to post/publish Dec 18.
I am respectfully requesting an opportunity to interview you this week and to take a team photo either on Thursday, Dec 7 or Monday, Dec 11.
The OP narrative will be limited to 320-350 words in length and will capture “What OP is responsible for and how OP assists the EOIR workforce?”
I’m looking forward to this unique opportunity and thank you in advance for your time and support.

All my best,
Angela Kravetz
Good Morning,

As mentioned in the e-mail below and in this month’s Director’s Spotlight message, we are excited about the December 11 launch of the Office of Policy. We have made some adjustments to the office’s structure that we wanted to share with you and, because of these changes, we are slightly modifying the qualifications for attorneys who wish to transfer to this office.

In addition to the current OPAS and OCLA teams, the Office of Policy will now have two additional divisions. The first, the Immigration Law Division (ILD) will as previously announced oversee and standardize the agency’s regulatory process in consultation with OGC and oversee and coordinate the agency’s internal development and dissemination of policy guidance and legal updates.

The second division (name still to be determined) will have the responsibility for all of the agency’s legal training, which includes training for members and staff of the Board of Immigration Appeals, immigration judges, attorneys, court administrators, and court staff throughout the country. Professional development and access to legal resources are critical to EOIR’s success. This division will also include the staff of EOIR’s law library and will continue and expand upon their work.

At this time, we are seeking volunteers for reassignment to be the division chiefs for each of these two new divisions and for attorneys who wish to work in those divisions. In particular, it is preferable that the applicant have experience related to the regulatory process, policy development, and/or legal training. Moreover, the applicant must have at least one year of supervisory experience.

Lauren Alder Reid comes to the Office of Policy, Immigration Law Division, from the Communication and Legislative Affairs Division, where she has drafted and reviewed legislation, and evaluated legal and policy issues related to criminal, administrative, and communications law to provide briefings, both oral and written, to senior executive staff. Prior to coming to EOIR, Lauren worked at the Department of Justice’s Office of Legislative Affairs, managing clearance of a large legislative portfolio that included issues related to immigration, drugs, sex offenses, cybercrime, money laundering, gangs, terrorist financing, and health. She has also served as an assistant general counsel to the United States Sentencing Commission, where she drafted sentencing guidelines and related policy documents. Other work history includes time with the United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary, Subcommittee on Crime and Drugs; the Drug Enforcement Administration; and Customs and Border Protection. She earned her bachelor’s degree, with honors, in psychology at Denison University (Granville, OH) and her juris doctor from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. Ms. Alder Reid is a member of the Maryland State and U.S. Supreme Court Bars.

Amanda Adams joins the Office of Policy as a supervisory attorney-advisor and chief of the Legal Education and Research Services Division. For the past seven years, Ms. Adams served as a senior legal advisor with the Board of Immigration Appeals, where among other things, she was responsible for overseeing the Board’s Legal Training & Development Program. She originally joined the Department of Justice and the Executive Office for Immigration Review through the Attorney General’s Honors Program in September 2000 as a judicial law clerk with the Office of the Chief Immigration Judge, Newark and Elizabeth Immigration Courts. Ms. Adams received her J.D. from Chicago-Kent College of Law and is a member of the Illinois Bar.
Following up on this just FYI... I have asked for an ECAS briefing for the Office of Policy shortly after we all return from the holiday break. Will look to see what we can/should disseminate after I find out where things stand. I have been out of the ECAS loop for a while.

Christopher A. Santoro
Chief of Staff

Good morning Judge Santoro,

Regarding your new acting role with OP, please see the latest ECAs Weekly Update.

I think we need to disseminate some of this information to the field (all immigration courts). While the ECAS group is very capable, I think we still need to keep everyone in the loop as we progress. There should be a balance in terms of what we release (everyone doesn’t need to know everything) but I would like to avoid “we didn’t know what this was going to look like and no one asked us for our input.” I am not volunteering for more work, but thought this should be on your radar. At best, we should have a clear timeline of when information will be released. The ECAS team looked at some demos last week and already I can see some issues with how the project is progressing. I’m no expert in the technology field but I sense there are still gaps in communication between OCIJ and the tech folks.

Thank you,

Elliott

I am pleased to announce that Chief of Staff ACIJ Christopher A. Santoro will serve as the Acting Assistant Director for EOIR’s newly-formed Office of Policy, which is slated to begin operations on December 11. Chris will oversee setting up the office and ensuring a seamless transition as it centralizes coordination among different components on a number of issues. The Office of Policy will, among other things:

- identify, develop, draft and standardize agency priorities and policies
- oversee and standardize the agency's regulatory process in consultation with OGC
- oversee the strategic management process
- conduct research, evaluation, and statistical analysis
- expand analytics capacity to provide advanced and predictive analytics for strategic planning purposes
- enhance data quality and governance
- oversee and coordinate the agency's internal development and dissemination of policy guidance and legal updates and coordinate legal training
- provide for overall planning, management, and direction of communications.

I encourage you to contact Chris with any suggestions you may have regarding ways in which the Office of Policy can serve EOIR's needs.

James McHenry
Acting Director
Since I've heard nothing does this mean we now need Plan B?

Christopher A. Santoro
Chief of Staff

FYI – We need to start thinking of something else we can do if this person doesn’t come..............

I pinged OSG twice already and again yesterday. If I don’t hear anything by Monday we’ll proceed with an alternative strategy.

Hi Chris – Below is a proposal for three new CLAD positions. I cannot recall whether some or all of these positions are more likely to be contractors—let me know if that is the case, and I will revise the language.

During the past month, the CLAD Chief & Counsel and two contractors have left our office. Moreover, in recent months, Director McHenry and Acting Assistant Director Santoro have assigned CLAD a number of significant projects with relatively short timeframes for completion while CLAD continues to field a consistently high volume of press and congressional inquiries and requests. As we aim to achieve a more sustainable path in light of these staff changes and our office workload, CLAD proposes adding the following staff positions to our office:

Technical Information Specialist (web developer) GS-12/13
A Technical Information Specialist (web developer) will allow CLAD to more efficiently execute the myriad ad hoc requests for website changes our office receives. He or she will also enable CLAD to move, restructure (architecturally), and reorganize content (within and among pages) on EOIR’s internet site to improve the site’s usability and effectiveness. Additionally, he or she can assist with creating privileges, processes, and other site-governance protocols for managing the various component/agency requests for action or assistance on EOIR’s internet and intranet sites. A dedicated web developer will enable CLAD to build out the Office of Policy’s (OP) internet and intranet pages; stay current with tools, techniques, methodologies, and system requirements; and serve as a technical consultant to educate CLAD staff on the best ways to employ available technology to perform its functions (such as using appropriate tools to train OP employees on any newly developed policies).

Office Administrator GS-7/9/11
An Office Administrator will provide necessary support to CLAD managers in service of a staff that, as of April 2018, will span eight cities (HQ, NYC, Miami, Atlanta, Chicago, Houston, Denver, and SF). The Office Administrator will organize and monitor the CLAD office calendar and provide weekly updates regarding staff leave, significant meetings, and staff travel. The Office Administrator will be responsible for assisting with the processing of a variety of employee requests (e.g., telework, transit subsidy, business cards, travel card, and myriad OIT-related requests). This individual will also monitor and restock office supplies, and manage fax machine transmissions, office mail, and internal HQ deliveries and coordinate with appropriate CLAD staff members to respond to them. The Office Administrator will provide administrative support for CLAD contracts to assist the Contracting Officer’s Representative and other staff members who perform contract-related tasks as collateral duties. This individual will also be trained to answer CLAD’s mainline and for checking the mainline voicemail daily and routing the information accordingly.

Writer/Editor GS-11/12/13
A Writer/Editor will provide support for the development of CLAD’s internal and external communications products. This individual will be well-versed in AP and GPO rules and will be an expert in EOIR’s Style Guide when it is issued. CLAD is frequently given assignments to produce internal and external written products with very tight deadlines, and this individual would be assigned as needed to draft and review those items. The Writer/Editor would also be integral in reviewing the wide range of FAQs, flyers, and other documents intended for public consumption that EOIR components regularly submit to CLAD for review.

Thank you,
Nathan

Nathan Berkeley, deputy chief of the Communications and Legislative Affairs Division (CLAD), will continue to serve as acting chief of CLAD. Nathan will be assisted by Lou Ruffino, who has agreed to take on additional duties and serve as acting CLAD deputy chief beginning April 1, 2018.

Please join me in congratulating Lauren and Lou on their new roles and in thanking Nathan for his continued leadership.

Christopher A. Santoro

Nothing urgent here... Kurt saw me last week and wanted to talk about whether OP should do anything with respect to COOP policies. I think the answer is probably no but when you or someone on your staff has a chance, it might be worth talking to James (McDaniel) to see whether he thinks there is anything here for us or it should stay with OS.

Christopher A. Santoro
Assistant Director for Policy (acting)

Hi Judge Santoro:

Wow, talk about timing... anyway, per our conversation:

- COOP and other emergency preparedness/management policies will have a strong impact on these programs.
- I’m always available to discuss with the powers that be, when the time comes.

Regards,

Kurt

Use this version.

I need to give a copy to James first thing in the morning as a draft. I will also then give it to HR to classify and make sure we are on the right track for the GS-14.
