Religious Immigration Services

Religious workers from all over the world are called to the United States every year to fulfill their faith's mission, but the complexity and ever changing landscape of U.S. immigration law can make the journey difficult without guidance. This is where Religious Immigration Services can help.

Established in 1988 as part of the Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Inc., Religious Immigration Services is one of the few groups in the United States specializing in religious immigration law. These experienced legal professionals work closely with religious organizations who wish to bring a religious worker to the U.S.

QUALITY LEGAL SERVICES

Our services include, but are not limited to, assisting foreign-born religious workers with:

- Visa Applications (R-1 Religious Worker Visa, F-1 Student Visa, etc.)
- Extension/Change of Immigration Status
- Travel Documents and Work Authorization
- Lawful Permanent Residence (I-360 Petitions and I-485 Applications)
- Citizenship (N-400 Applications)

PERSONALIZED ASSISTANCE

In addition, our attorneys also offer:

- Orientations for religious workers and religious organizations on the U.S. immigration system
- Consultations on specific immigration questions by phone or e-mail
- Site visits to assist with complex immigration issues
- Ongoing legal case management
- Trainings for church personnel and staff on religious immigration law
